

FIRST AMENDMENT TO AIP CONTENT LICENSING AGREEMENT

This Amendment to the Content Licensing License Agreement (“Amendment”) is effectively dated as of January 1, 2023 (the “Effective Date”) by and between AIP PUBLISHING LLC (“AIPP”) and Maynooth University, acting on behalf of itself and as agent for the IReL consortium members (“Licensee”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, AIPP and Licensee entered into that certain AIP Content Licensing License Agreement on January 1, 2020, wherein Publisher agreed to provide a license to certain online materials (the “Existing Agreement”).

WHEREAS, AIPP and Licensee desire to make certain amendments to the List of Licensed Content and Fees scheduled to be paid for 2023-2025 in the Agreement, as set forth in this Amendment.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, AIPP and Licensee, intending to be legally bound, covenant and agree as follows:

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The foregoing Recitals are hereby incorporated in and made a substantive, contractual part of this Amendment by this reference.
2. Amendment to Existing Agreement Fee Schedule. Effective as of the Effective Date, the Part 1 – Custom Terms Fees, Appendix A: Licensee and the Appendix B: Licensed Content to the Existing Agreement shall be amended.
3. No Other Changes. All other terms, conditions and provisions of the Existing Agreement remain in full force and effect, except as modified by this Amendment.
4. Binding Effect. This Amendment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of AIPP and Licensee and their respective permitted successors and assigns.
5. This Amendment will terminate on December 31, 2025.
6. Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Amendment may be executed in two (2) or more counterpart copies, all of which counterparts shall have the same force and effect as if the parties hereto had executed a single copy of this Amendment. Facsimile or PDF signatures shall be construed as originals.

Publishing Privilege. AIPP shall publish the peer-reviewed articles or other peer-reviewed material up to and including the Article Cap suitable for its journals and subject to AIPP's editorial standards authored by staff and students registered with the Participating Institutions at the time of the article's acceptance so that such articles and materials are available without charge under the following conditions:

- The Participating Institution (which must be listed in Appendix A) holds duly licensed, fully paid access to a journal noted as "Publish-Eligible" in Appendix B
- The corresponding author of the article is a current student, researcher, or faculty member of the Participating Institution at the time of article acceptance, as defined in the Agreement;

The Licensee is responsible for verifying the corresponding author's affiliation with the Participating Institution.

- The article has the type "primary research article", "review article", "perspective article", or "tutorial article";
- The acceptance date of the article falls within the Term of this Agreement;
- The author correctly identifies himself/herself as registered staff or student of the Participating Institution as required during the submission process; and
- The corresponding author selects a CC BY license.
- The author will retain copyright of the article

If these conditions are not met, the article will be published either as a restricted-access publication available only to subscribers / licensees of AIPP's program, or as an Open Access (OA) publication if the author chooses to pay the requisite Article Publishing Charges (APC) as posted for each journal of AIPP's website.

It is the responsibility of both the Licensee and AIPP to inform Licensee's researchers and authors about the OA process. AIPP will ensure that the relevant information about the OA workflow will be available on the AIPP platform and authors will be informed about the agreement during the submission process. The open access publishing will be the default route for eligible authors under the Agreement.

AIPP will report to the Licensee quarterly on articles from corresponding authors from Participating Institutions published during the Term.

Both parties agree to work together during the Term to review the performance of this Agreement's OA publishing provision and to make reasonable efforts to identify and implement improvements, and to promptly troubleshoot any issues as they arise.

Overage. For all articles above the Article Cap, at a cost equal to the Overage Fee, AIPP shall publish the peer-reviewed articles or other peer-reviewed material suitable for its journals and subject to AIPP's editorial standards authored by professors, researchers, and others associated with Licensee so that such articles and materials are available without charge to subscribers to AIPP's services. If the fee is not paid and / or the conditions above are not met, the article will not be published OA unless the author chooses to pay the requisite APC, as posted for each journal on AIPP's website.

All rights and privileges granted to Licensee under this Appendix shall terminate with the termination of the Agreement.
