

READ AND PUBLISH MASTER AGREEMENT

Agreement with Wiley internal number 43576 dated as of January 1, 2025 (the “Agreement”) between John Wiley & Sons, Inc., a New York corporation, and its affiliates Wiley Periodicals LLC, John Wiley & Sons, Ltd, John Wiley & Sons Australia, Ltd, Wiley-VCH GmbH, John Wiley & Sons A/S (collectively “Wiley”), and Maynooth University (host organisation of the Irish Research Electronic Library), South Campus Maynooth, KILDARE W23 HW21 IRELAND (the “Customer” or the “Consortium” , and together with Wiley, the “Parties,” and each, a “Party”).

Through this Agreement, the Parties have committed to facilitate open access publication of research articles and enable access to Wiley’s portfolio of peer-reviewed scholarly journals. The Parties aim to build a sustainable future that creates impact for publishing and scholarly research, and each party will work in good faith with the goal of achieving maximum participation by all eligible authors in the open access publishing services provided by Wiley hereunder. The Parties further recognize the special commercial terms on which this Agreement was based, namely that the article allocation is based on the historical volume of Hybrid articles associated with the Customer. Customer recognizes the importance of maintaining their hybrid journal publishing volume and will work in good faith with Wiley to that end.

This Agreement is entered into between Wiley and the Consortium. The Consortium represents and warrants that it has the power and authority to act on behalf of its Member Institutions (the Customer(s) as defined below) identified in Schedule 1.

1. DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the meaning as set forth below:

- 1.1. Agreement means this Agreement with Wiley internal number 43576 between Wiley, the Consortium, and its member institutions, including the appendices and schedules, which are incorporated herein by reference or signed by the parties and governed by the terms of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of an appendix, a schedule, or an Invoice Agreement Letter (or a written equivalent thereof), on the one hand and the terms of this Agreement on the other hand, the terms of the appendix, schedule, or Invoice Agreement Letter (or written equivalent thereof) will govern.
- 1.2. Article Allowance means up to the maximum number of Eligible Articles that may be published in Gold Journals and in Hybrid Journals on an open access basis as specified in Section 5.1. (and includes those articles covered by the Post-Publication OA Conversion Right referenced in section 3.7.) and Appendix A.1.
- 1.3. Article Publication Charge (APC) means the charge levied by Wiley on the acceptance of an Eligible Article for publication on an open access basis in Gold Journals, the amount of which is dependent on the services and value provided by the journal in which such article is published.
- 1.4. AI Technologies means for purposes of this Agreement, software that is developed with or for the purpose of one or more machine learning techniques and approaches (including but not limited to supervised, unsupervised and reinforcement learning) and can generate outputs such as content, predictions, recommendations, or decisions influencing the environments with which they interact.
- 1.5. Author Services means the platform (or any successor thereto) designated by Wiley, which may include an author account, services, and features, and provided to authors publishing articles in a Wiley journal.
- 1.6. Authorized User(s) means those persons who are authorized by the Customer to have access to the Licensed Electronic Products and fit into one or more of the below categories:
 - 1.6.a. Current bona fide faculty members, students, researchers, staff members, librarians, scientific staff, other executives or employees of the Customer,
 - 1.6.b. Walk-in Users from the public or business invitees, or

- 1.6.c. Contractors that are currently engaged by the Customer.
- 1.7. Consortium means the Irish Research Electronic Library, which is hosted by Maynooth University and is authorized to negotiate and enter into this Agreement on behalf of itself and the member institutions defined in Schedule 1, and is responsible for the payment of all fees and for the implementation of this Agreement.
- 1.8. Customer means each participating member institution listed in Schedule 1 (individually, and collectively, as the context may require) as well as the Consortium signing on their collective behalf. The Customers have authorized the Consortium to enter into this Agreement on their behalf and to be liable for and pay all fees due to Wiley under this Agreement.
- 1.9. Dashboard means the automated system (e.g., Oable, WOAD, Dashboard, or any successor thereto) designated by Wiley, including all products, services and features offered via the Dashboard, that enable the Customer to manage its WOAA.
- 1.10. Electronic Products and Services means all products, services, and content available in Wiley Online Library. The specific Electronic Products licensed hereunder, fees, and the Customer's access rights are provided in a Product Appendix hereto. For the avoidance of doubt, the duration of an Appendix may never exceed the Agreement Term as detailed in section 8.1. below, but while the Agreement and Appendix are valid, the Customer may continue to order additional titles under the same Appendix and this Agreement.
- 1.11. Eligible Article(s) means works that are:
- 1.11.a. Primary research and review articles, including but not limited to articles classified by Wiley as Case Study, Commentary, Data Article, Education, Lecture, Method and Protocol, Perspective, Practice and Policy, Rapid Publication, Research Article, Review Article, Short Communication, and Technical Note (an illustrative list is set forth in Appendix A.1, which Wiley is permitted to update from time to time), and
 - 1.11.b. Authored by Eligible Authors; and
 - 1.11.c. Accepted from the date on which Customer's Dashboard is activated ("Publishing Right Start Date") up to December 31, 2028, for open access publication in a journal that is a Hybrid Journal (i.e., a Hybrid Journal as of the date of editorial acceptance of the article) for the Hybrid Journal Publishing Right or a Gold Journal (i.e., a Gold Journal as of the date of submission of the article) if Customer has elected and Wiley has approved the Gold Journal Publishing Right (the Publishing Right Start Date up to December 31, 2028 is the "Publishing Right Period").
- 1.12. Eligible Author(s) means authors:
- 1.12.a. Who are affiliated with a Customer, i.e., students enrolled at or accredited to the Customer or who are staff employed by the Customer; and
 - 1.12.b. Who are designated as the responsible corresponding author within Wiley's submission system and Author Services platform. In the case of multiple corresponding authors being identified on the version of record, it is the author designated as the responsible corresponding author who is the Eligible Author (and such responsible corresponding author is not required to appear as the first author); and
 - 1.12.c. For whom their affiliation has been confirmed pursuant to Section 3; and

- 1.12.d. Who have signed one of Wiley's then-current open access author agreements for publication of an article on an open access basis in one of the Hybrid Journals or Gold Journals (as applicable).
- 1.13. Flipped Journals means all Hybrid Journals that change (also referred to as "flip") during the Term of the Agreement to journals that offer authors only the option to publish articles on an open access basis (known as "Gold Journals," see below). For the avoidance of doubt, the journals that fall within the definition of "Flipped Journals" apply only during the contract Term; on renewal or where a new agreement is entered, there will be a new set of Flipped Journals reflecting those that flip during that renewal or term of the new agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the terms for Hybrid Journals apply to Flipped Journals, as described herein.
- 1.14. Gold Journals means the open access journals published by the Wiley affiliates identified in the preamble above, that offer authors only the option to publish articles on an open access basis. For purposes of this Agreement, Gold Journals do not include the Flipped Journals.
- 1.15. Hybrid Journals means the subscription journals published by the Wiley affiliates identified in the preamble above that offer authors the option to publish articles on an open access basis (such journals may be referred to in Wiley systems as "Online Open").
- 1.16. Institutional Account List means the list of institutional account holders Wiley publishes on <https://authorservices.wiley.com/author-resources/Journal-Authors/open-access/affiliation-policies-payments/institutional-funder-payments.html>.
- 1.17. Intellectual Property Rights means, without limitation, patents, trademarks, trade names, design rights, copyright (including rights in computer software), database rights, rights in know-how and other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered, which may subsist anywhere in the world. All rights not specifically licensed herein to the Customer are expressly reserved by Wiley. The Licensed Electronic Products are solely for the personal, non-commercial use of the Authorized Users.
- 1.18. Licensed Electronic Products means the electronic (online) editions of Wiley journals and other publications and the content therein, including but not limited to major reference works, Current Protocols laboratory manuals and databases which the Customer has licensed hereunder as specified in the appropriate product appendices (the "Product Appendices").
- 1.19. Licensed Electronic Services means the electronic features and services in Wiley Online Library available to the Customer and its Authorized Users, including but not limited to:
- 1.19.a. EarlyView for Journals— publishes peer reviewed, fully citable articles online as soon as they are ready, before the release of the compiled journal issue.
 - 1.19.b. Saved Title Alerts for Journals – allows Authorized Users to request and receive via e-mail the tables of contents from any of the journals available online in Wiley Online Library and to receive notification of articles newly published which match specified search criteria.
- 1.20. Non-commercial means the use is not intended for, directed towards, or to be used for commercial advantage or monetary compensation by an individual or organization, including by any third party partnering or collaborating with the Customer.
- 1.21. Secure Network means the network which provides access to Wiley Online Library for Authorized Users via the specific Customer's authentication method and valid parameters which are covered by this Agreement and set forth in Schedule 1. Except in the case of written request from the Customer to the contrary, in addition to the methods set forth in Schedule 1, Wiley will enable federated authentication through Shibboleth Federation and OpenAthens using Customer's access federation and entity ID if such information is available to Wiley.
- 1.22. Wiley Online Library means the online service (or any successor thereto) or other platform available from or designated by Wiley including all products, services and features offered via the service. Certain products and services under this Agreement may be delivered from other platforms as noted in the Product Appendices. The terms and conditions hereof are equally applicable to those products and services.

- 1.23. WOAA means the Wiley Open Access Account(s) (or any successor thereto) designated by Wiley and held by the Customer for the purposes of administering open access workflows in Wiley's journals.

2. ACCESS RIGHT

- 2.1. General Access Right. Wiley grants to the Customer and their Authorized Users, during the Term, a non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license to access, via Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products as listed in the Product Appendices attached hereto as may be amended from time to time, including the full text and other material such as datasets published online, available tables of contents, article abstracts, chapter summaries, and associated websites.
T
- 2.2. Unlimited Concurrent Users. The number of the Authorized Users who may simultaneously access Wiley Online Library is unlimited.
- 2.3. Intellectual Property Rights. The Customer acknowledges that the Electronic Products, Wiley Online Library, Author Services, WOAA, Dashboard, Wiley's other platforms, and the Intellectual Property Rights contained therein are protected by law. All rights not specifically licensed herein to the Customer are expressly reserved by Wiley. The Licensed Electronic Products are solely for the personal, non-commercial use of the Authorized Users as detailed in Section 4.
- 2.4. Perpetual Access Right. Upon termination of this Agreement, Wiley will provide the Customer with Perpetual Access to specific content from certain Licensed Electronic Products if and only as stated in the specific product appendices (the "Perpetual Access"); for the avoidance of doubt, no such Perpetual Access will be provided where Wiley has terminated this Agreement for breach by Customer, or by any Authorized User. When such Perpetual Access is provided, Wiley, in its discretion, will either continue online access to the same material excluding any enhancements added to the version originally published or additional online features not provided with the print versions of such content, or provide an archival copy in the electronic medium selected by Wiley, at a reasonable cost-based fee, and subject to the security requirements in this Agreement. By providing such Perpetual Access, Wiley grants to the Customer a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use such material in accordance with the restrictions on use specified in Section 4 of the Agreement, which survive any termination of the Agreement.
- 2.5. Dark Archive. Wiley has designated both Portico and CLOCKSS as third-party providers of access to the Licensed Electronic Products. Customer may access the material on either Portico's or CLOCKSS' server, or another third-party provider designated by Wiley, free of charge, solely in the event of a Trigger Event (as defined below), as long as:
 - 2.5.a. Wiley continues to designate Portico, CLOCKSS, or such third-party as a provider;
 - 2.5.b. The Licensed Electronic Products are available on Portico, CLOCKSS, or such third-party provider's platform;
 - 2.5.c. Wiley maintains copyright over the Licensed Electronic Products; and
 - 2.5.d. The Customer follows Portico's, CLOCKSS', or such third-party's procedures for accessing the Licensed Electronic Products.

Such access will be deactivated immediately on resumption of access to Wiley Online Library.

Trigger Event means if Wiley makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or for reorganization or rearrangement under the bankruptcy laws, or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed against it and is not dismissed within 60 days after the filing, or if a receiver or trustee is appointed for the property or assets of Wiley or an equivalent or similar event or proceeding occurs in any jurisdiction, or ceases its scholarly publication operations; or downtime of Wiley Online Library and/or a total loss of access by the Customer to the Licensed Electronic Products, either of which are continuing for at least 30 days

2.5.e. Wiley's Failure to comply with Section 2.5 will not be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement.

3. PUBLISHING RIGHT

3.1. Publishing Right. Wiley agrees, during the Publishing Right Period, in accordance with the terms set forth in Sections 3 and 5, and

3.1.a. Subject to the Article Allowance and the payment of the Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fees set forth in Appendix A.1, to publish Eligible Articles open access as requested by Eligible Authors in the Hybrid Journals and Flipped Journals ("Hybrid Journal Publishing Right"); and to publish Eligible Articles open access as requested by Eligible Authors in the Gold Journals ("Gold Journal Publishing Right"). Wiley maintains up-to-date, publicly available, online lists of the applicable journals, as described in Appendix A; the online lists govern the journals covered by this Agreement. The Parties agree the APCs are based on the services and value provided by the journal in which such articles are published. Wiley is permitted to change the applicable journals and the APCs from time to time (e.g., including but not limited to where there are adjustments to Wiley's portfolio of journals, Hybrid Journals transition to fully open access journals (i.e., Gold Journals), price changes, etc.).

3.2. Open Access Author Agreement. Before the version of record is published, Eligible Authors of Eligible Articles (and, if different, the owner of any copyright in such articles), must sign Wiley's then-current open access author agreement. Eligible Authors will be able to select from the following Creative Commons licenses, as applicable for the particular journal: Attribution International (CC BY), Attribution Non-Commercial International (CC BY-NC), Attribution No-Derivatives International (CC BY-ND), or Attribution Non-Commercial No-Derivatives International (CC BY-NC-ND). The publication workflow will, whenever possible, direct Eligible Authors to select CC BY as the first option if permitted by the applicable journal and its policies.

3.3. WOAA Workflow.

3.3.a. Hybrid Journals. Under the Hybrid WOAA Workflow, the Eligible Author, as designated on submission of an Eligible Article, or subsequently identified as such within Author Services, must identify the Eligible Author's affiliation with a Customer, by selecting from a standardized list of institutions in the electronic editorial office submission and Author Services systems. Once the affiliation is identified, and once the Eligible Article has been accepted for publication, the Eligible Author will be presented with a choice of publishing open access. Wiley will include sufficient information and guidance to encourage Eligible Authors to publish open access as part of this Agreement (so long as the correct affiliation of the Eligible Author is captured in Wiley systems' metadata) and that they do not need to pay an APC. If an author elects not to publish open access, the article will not be covered by this Agreement.

3.3.b. Gold Journals. Under the Gold WOAA Workflow, the Eligible Author (or the person who was designated the Eligible Author on submission and) who has submitted an Eligible Article in the editorial office submission system must input the affiliation of the Eligible Author by selecting an institution from a standardized list and, for some Gold Journals, also answer a publication charge question in order to request that the article is covered as an Eligible Article by this Agreement.

- 3.3.c. Flipped Journals. Flipped Journals will follow the Gold WOA Workflow for Gold Journals, but will utilize the Article Allowance for Hybrid Journals.
- 3.4. Non-Standard Workflow. For Hybrid Journals that do not follow the WOA Workflow, Wiley will make reasonable efforts to inform the Eligible Author that the Eligible Articles are meant to be published open access under this Agreement where the Eligible Author has identified an affiliation with a Customer in the electronic editorial office submission system.
- 3.5. Wiley will:
- 3.5.a. Be responsible for identifying the potentially eligible authors under this Agreement (subject to the verification process set forth below in Section 3.7);
 - 3.5.b. Not charge an Eligible Author an APC for any Eligible Article as long as the Eligible Author follows the WOA or the Non-Standard Workflows. If the WOA or the Non-Standard Workflows are not followed, any APC subsequently incurred by the Eligible Author is not covered by this Agreement and the Eligible Article will not be deducted from the Article Allowance as applicable. If an Eligible Author follows the WOA or Non-Standard Workflows but did not select open access publishing, and requests Wiley to change the publication basis prior to being published, Wiley will do so, and the Eligible Article will be covered by this Agreement.
 - 3.5.c. Include the Customer in the account list for all Hybrid Journals and Gold Journals as an account holder;
 - 3.5.d. Provide a link for the Customer on the Institutional Account List on Author Services;
 - 3.5.e. Identify on Wiley Online Library the Hybrid Journal and Gold Journal articles that are open access;
 - 3.5.f. Deliver metadata for Open Access Articles, including open access license information, to CrossRef and other relevant third parties. The CrossRef records for Open Access Articles must specify that the relevant Creative Commons license has been applied to the version of record.
 - 3.5.g. Make reports of account activity available to the Consortium via the Dashboard;
 - 3.5.h. Provide the article record in the Dashboard with all necessary metadata including, but not limited to, name, ORCID (if provided) and email address of all authors, full name of author's affiliation (e.g., university), acceptance date, journal title, article DOI (if applicable), article title, article classification.
 - 3.5.i. Provide annual reports on all articles editorially accepted for publication which are written by Eligible Authors and are either: published in conformity with this Agreement; or published open access but not in conformity with this Agreement (e.g. author paid the APC or the Publisher waived APC); or published subscription (not open access) during the Term. The annual reports shall cover the previous calendar year and shall be delivered in the first quarter of the following year. For each article, Wiley will complete the metadata fields indicated in Appendix O: publication reporting metadata.
- 3.6. Open Access Conversion Right.
- 3.6.a. In Contract Year One only, Customer has the right (the “OA Conversion Right”) to request to cover articles that have not been published as open access and that satisfy the requirements of Sections 1.9.1. and 1.9.2., and:

- 3.6.a.i. for Hybrid Journals, were accepted for publication in a Hybrid Journal (i.e., a Hybrid Journal as of the date of the editorial acceptance of the article) on a subscription basis for which the author has not yet selected the publication basis (subscription or open access), where such editorial acceptance occurred between the date of the Agreement and the Publishing Right Start Date.
- 3.6.b. To exercise the OA Conversion Right, Wiley will provide a list of articles eligible for conversion. Then, Customer must select the articles they would like to convert and inform Wiley in writing about their selection. Wiley will contact the Eligible Authors of the selected articles for final approval, and the Eligible Author must then confirm the conversion of their article to open access publication and sign Wiley's then-current open access author agreement.
- 3.7. Post-Publication Open Access Conversion Right. Wiley may provide Customer with a list of published articles for post-publication OA conversion of published articles that satisfy the requirements of Section 1.11 and were accepted for publication in a Hybrid Journal (i.e., a Hybrid Journal as of the date of the acceptance of the article) for which the author originally selected publication on a subscription basis, or for which the author has not yet selected the publication basis (subscription or open access), where such acceptance occurred within the Agreement Term. Wiley will ensure the option to request Post-Publication OA Conversion Right is available to Eligible Authors for Eligible Articles via their Author Services account. The Eligible Author can request open access publication and must sign Wiley's then-current open access author agreement.
- 3.8. Verification process.
- 3.8.a. Wiley will identify potentially eligible authors through at least one of the following parameters: their organization name; their e-mail domain; or persistent identifier, such as Ringgold or another recognized institutional identifier, and then request verification from the Customer that the author is an Eligible Author.
- 3.8.b. It is the sole responsibility of the Customer to verify, within their Dashboard, that the author qualifies as an Eligible Author (as defined herein). Customer will approve or deny requests for verification from Wiley within five (5) days. If the Consortium requires more time, it must notify Wiley and Wiley will provide a reasonable extension.
- 3.9. Editorial Independence. Nothing herein will oblige Wiley to publish any article submitted to Wiley by an Eligible Author. The Customer acknowledges that the selection of material to be published is entirely at the discretion of Wiley/the editors, and the Customer agrees not to deny author verification based on the material. Wiley is permitted to elect not to publish any Eligible Article, and/or permitted to retract, withdraw, or publish a correction or other notice for an article accepted for publication, if for any reason, in Wiley's reasonable judgment, such publication would be inconsistent with the Core Practices and associated guidelines set forth by the Committee on Publication Ethics (<https://publicationethics.org/core-practices>) or would result in legal liability, violation of Wiley's ethical guidelines, or violation of journal ethical practices. The Customer waives any claim it may have against Wiley in the event that Wiley or its editors refuse or decline to publish any Eligible Article (or part thereof) submitted by an Eligible Author, or retract, withdraw, publish a correction or other notice with respect to any Eligible Article published by Wiley under this Agreement. An article will be considered to be selected for publication once the Eligible Author has been notified that the article has been accepted and Wiley has received the applicable author agreement signed by the rights holder(s) of the article.

4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE OF WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, WOAA, AND DASHBOARD

- 4.1. The rights and restrictions governing access to Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Products by the Customer and its Authorized Users are outlined below.

- 4.1.a. Authorized Users may download, search, retrieve, display and view, copy and save to a Secure Network or other electronic storage media and store or print out single copies of individual articles, chapters, or entries in the Licensed Electronic Products for the Authorized User's own personal use, namely scholarly, educational, or scientific research exclusively for Non-commercial use as defined in section 1.20 above. Authorized Users may also transmit such material to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically, for personal use, namely scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for the following uses: re-sale, systematic distribution, e.g. posting on a listserv, network (including distribution through social networking websites and scholarly collaboration networks (SCNs), except it is permissible to post on an SCN that has signed up to the STM sharing principles and solely in accordance therewith (see <https://howcanishareit.com>) or automated delivery, or for any other use not enumerated herein. In addition, Authorized Users have the right to use, with appropriate credit, figures, tables and brief excerpts from individual articles, chapters or other entries from the Licensed Electronic Products in the Authorized User's own scientific, scholarly and educational works such as books and articles. This right does not extend to use of material, including images or figures that are separately listed as the copyright of a third party.
- 4.1.b. All Authorized Users have the option to create a My Profile Page, which will allow them to create data files and links to articles, chapters and entries of interest in the Licensed Electronic Products, and search criteria, which may be reused by them. To do so, the Authorized User will have to select and register a username and password which the Authorized User must keep confidential and not disclose it to or share it with anyone else.
- 4.1.c. The Customer and its Authorized Users may create links to Wiley Online Library from their Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) records, library catalogs, link resolvers, locally hosted databases or library web pages, provided those links are operated by the Customer on a Secure Network, do not result in access to licensed content by anyone other than Authorized Users, and are not used in connection with any paid or commercial service or for any other commercial use whatsoever. Authorized Users may search, view, and browse Licensed Electronic Products using the interface provided by Wiley. Automated searching, robotic searching and decompilation are strictly prohibited.
- 4.1.d. Authorized Users who are members of the Customer's faculty or staff may download and print out multiple copies of material from Licensed Electronic Products for the purpose of making a multi-source collection of information for classroom use (course-pack) or a virtual learning environment, to be distributed to students at the Customer's institution free of charge or at a cost-based fee. Material from Licensed Electronic Products may also be stored in electronic format in secure electronic data files for access by Authorized Users who are students at the Customer's institution, as part of their course work, so long as reasonable access control methods are employed such as username and password.
- 4.1.e. The Customer's library staff may supply to another library, upon request by that library, either a single paper copy or an electronic copy of an individual document from the Licensed Electronic Products, for the purpose of research or private study. The electronic copy must be in PDF format, supplied by secure electronic transmission and must be deleted by the recipient library immediately after printing a paper copy of the document for its user.
- 4.1.f. Authorized Users who wish to text and data mine the Licensed Electronic Products for non-commercial purposes may use the Wiley TDM API. Authorized Users must accept Wiley's Text and Data Mining Agreement to receive an API token. See here for further details: <https://www.onlinelibrary.wiley.com/library-info/resources/text-and-datamining>.

- 4.1.g. All Authorized Users are bound by the Terms of Use which are available at <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/terms-and-conditions>. and attached herein as Schedule 3. Wiley reserves the right to modify such Terms of Use as described therein. If there is any inconsistency between the Terms of Use and the terms in the Agreement, the terms in the Agreement govern with respect to the parties rights and obligations. Wiley will endeavor to notify the Customer if substantial and material changes to the Terms of Use are made.
- 4.1.h. Authorized Users must be informed of, and agree to abide by, the Terms and Conditions of Use set forth herein.
- 4.2. Customer and Authorized Users may use AI Technologies with limited portions of the Licensed Electronic Products in a Customer-controlled secure network environment:
- 4.2.a. For Non-commercial research or academic teaching purposes of the Authorized Users in a manner that is not a Restricted AI Activity. Restricted AI Activities are: (1) systematic download of the Licensed Electronic Products; (2) adversely disrupting the functionality of Wiley Online Library or the Licensed Electronic Products; (3) the creation of a competing or commercial product or service; (4) or the creation of derivative works or generating substantially similar output, for use by a Third Party (i.e., neither the Customer nor Authorized User; (5) distributing or reproducing the Licensed Electronic Products to a Third Party, except as solely needed to use the AI Technologies for the purpose described in this Section 4.2.a; (6) publicly displaying or publicly performing, or making available to the public the Licensed Electronic Products or any part thereof to, for, or with a third party (i.e., neither the Customer nor Authorized User); (7) retention of the Licensed Electronic Products or any residual portion by a third party; (8) training, testing, or evaluating the AI Technologies; or (9) violation of intellectual property, privacy, personal, moral, or attribution rights of a thirdparty.
- 4.2.b. The forgoing restrictions in Section 4.2.a. do not apply to Licensed Electronic Products made available under a CC-BY license, for which the terms of the license apply.
- 4.2.c. Nothing in this Section 4.2. is intended to restrict Authorized Users' statutory rights explicitly granted under applicable law.
- 4.2.d. Customer and Wiley acknowledge the challenges and complexities of AI Technologies and agree to work together in good faith in this evolving area and adapt as the governing law and technology evolve.
- 4.3. Except as expressly provided in Sections 4.1. and 4.2. above or with respect to material published on an open access basis (which material is governed by the corresponding open access license), neither Customer, nor Authorized Users may copy, distribute, transmit or otherwise reproduce, sell, or resell material from the Electronic Products; post or store such material in any form or medium in a retrieval system, network or listserv; transmit such material, directly or indirectly, for use in any paid service such as document delivery or list serve, or for use by any information brokerage or for systematic distribution, whether or not for commercial or non-profit use, or for a fee or free of charge; or integrate material from the Electronic Products with other material or otherwise create derivative works in any medium. However, brief quotations by Authorized Users for purposes of comment, criticism or similar scholarly purposes are not prohibited herein.
- 4.4. The Customer and its Authorized Users may not remove, obscure or modify any copyright or proprietary notices, author attribution or any disclaimer as they appear on Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, WOAA, or Dashboard.
- 4.5. Neither Customer, nor Authorized Users may do anything to restrict or inhibit any other Authorized User's access to or use of Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products, Author Services, WOAA, or Dashboard.
- 4.6. If an Authorized User fails to abide by these Terms and Conditions of Use or other terms of this Agreement, infringes Wiley's Intellectual Property Rights, or the Consortium or a Customer hosts an authentication method and parameters that have been identified as abusive or malicious, Wiley reserves the right in its sole discretion to suspend or terminate access to Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products, WOAA and Dashboard by such Authorized User or to terminate the authentication method and parameters immediately without notice, in addition to any other available remedies, and Consortium and the Customer will assist Wiley as necessary. Except in the case of a material breach which Wiley deems dangerous to the integrity and security of Wiley Online Library, or for a breach which, if not immediately remedied, is likely in Wiley's opinion to continue to cause damage, Wiley will give prior written notice to the Consortium and the Customer of its intention to terminate such access and will allow the Consortium and the Customer and/or the Authorized User as applicable 30 days after receipt of such notice to cure the breach or agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Consortium and the Customer must notify Wiley when malicious credentials associated with the offending authentication method and parameters have been remediated. Wiley will immediately restore services upon notification that credentials associated with the abusive or malicious activity have been remediated.

5. FEES AND CHARGES

5.1. Access & Journal Publishing Fees.

- 5.1.a. Consortium will pay a single, annual, non-refundable commitment fee for the Access Right for the Licensed Electronic Products granted under Appendix B and for the Journal Publishing Right during each Contract Year, as specified in the Access and Publishing Right Table set forth in Appendix A.1 (the "Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fee").
- 5.1.b. Consortium will pay the Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fee in accordance with the relevant invoice.
 - 5.1.b.i. Nothing should be assumed from the single fee applied for access and publishing rights.
 - 5.1.b.ii. The Article Allowance for each Contract Year does not roll over into a subsequent Contract Year and expires at the end of final Contract Year.
 - 5.1.b.iii. The Consortium will manage Article Allowance allocation on a first-come, first-served basis. Consortium is not permitted to specify the proportion of the Article Allowance per journal type.
 - 5.1.b.iv. For clarity, for an Eligible Article to benefit from the Article Entitlement for the Contract Year, the date of editorial acceptance must be during the Contract Year; where an article is editorially accepted and requested to be published OA in one year and approved by an OA admin in the following year, Wiley will use the editorial acceptance date for article allowance allocation.
- 5.1.c. Funding requests are approved by the Consortium.
 - 5.1.c.i. on acceptance of the article for Hybrid Journals, and
 - 5.1.c.ii. on submission of the article for Gold Journals or Flipped Journals.

5.2. Fund Utilization. Once the funding request has been approved, the request will only be deducted or drawn down from the Article Allowance at the later of:

- 5.2.a. approval of the funding request and
- 5.2.b. acceptance of the article and the author completes the post-acceptance Author Services workflow.

5.3. Optional Overage. In the event that the Article Allowance is exceeded in any Contract Year for (a) Hybrid Journals and Flipped Journals and/or (b) Gold Journals, each Customer in its full discretion will have the option to deposit funds into a new WOAA if they decide to cover APCs for additional articles, at a discount to be mutually agreed at the time.

- 5.3.a. If a Customer decides to execute this option, such Customer will notify Wiley through the online form provided, requesting the amount of funds to be deposited. Wiley in its discretion may accept the request, set up the new WOAA and then invoice Customer for

- the additional article coverage subject to the terms of this Agreement for Eligible Articles. Customer shall make the deposit in accordance with the relevant invoice.
- 5.3.b. The APC levied by Wiley for open access publishing will be at the Wiley APC for the journal, which Wiley has discounted for the benefit of the Customer as set forth in this Section. Wiley will deduct APCs due for each such Eligible Article from the total WOA fund for the Customer on a first-come first-serve basis until the WOA fund for the Contract Year is depleted, and such amount may roll over into the subsequent Contract Year.
- 5.3.c. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.3 is available to each Customer as an option. The Consortium will not be responsible for payment of any additional fees under this section.
- 5.4. Wiley is permitted to allocate the revenues received under this Agreement to its portfolio of journals as it deems appropriate.
- 5.5. In addition to the Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fee, fees for the Gold Journal Publishing Right, other fees and charges for Licensed Electronic Products and other services provided by Wiley may be specified in Product Appendices attached hereto and will be due as set forth in the relevant invoice.
- 5.6. The Consortium is responsible for any applicable direct or indirect local, state, federal, or foreign taxes, levies, duties, or similar governmental assessments of any nature, including value-added, sales, use, or withholding taxes where required by law. Consortium will pay to Wiley the full amount of any invoice, regardless of any deduction that Consortium believes it is required by law to make, such that the net amount received by Wiley equals the full amount that would have been received had no such deduction or withholding been required. All Fees required by this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable taxes. Each Customer warrants that, where applicable to Customer, it is registered for VAT under applicable law and will promptly inform Wiley in the event that this changes. If upon audit Wiley is assessed additional value-added taxes in connection with this Agreement because a Customer is found not to be registered for VAT where applicable to Customer, Wiley reserves the right to invoice the applicable Customer retroactively for any additional associated assessment for value-added taxes.
- 5.7. In addition to all other remedies available under this Agreement or at law, Wiley is entitled to suspend the provision of any products or services, including but not limited to access to the Licensed Electronic Products, if the Customer fails to pay any fees as due under this Agreement within the payment terms stated in the applicable invoice. If Wiley executes this option, the Consortium will not be entitled to any reduction in the payment due, nor refund due to the suspension.
- 5.8. The Consortium is responsible for ensuring that any third party authorized by the Consortium to make payments on its behalf will promptly pay Wiley the full amounts due under this Agreement. Wiley will annually send the Consortium an Invoice Agreement Letter (“IAL”) or equivalent written communication, which may be accompanied by updated Product Appendices.
- 5.8.a. The Invoice Agreement Letter will reflect the agreed fees under this Agreement and will include an itemized split of the Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fee for the then current Contract Year.
- 5.9. This Agreement will renew for the period set forth in the Invoice Agreement Letter for the fees agreed to and set forth in the IAL, upon any one of the following:
- 5.9.a.i. Customer’s execution of the annual IAL, or equivalent written communication,
 - 5.9.a.ii. Customer’s written acceptance of the annual fees via email,
 - 5.9.a.iii. Access enablement by Wiley to the Licensed Electronic Products upon Customer’s written request,
 - 5.9.a.iv. Customer’s signature of the Product Appendices, or
 - 5.9.a.v. Payment of the fees set forth therein.

- 5.9.b. Except as specifically set forth in the IAL or equivalent written communication as set forth above, the terms and conditions of this Agreement including updated Appendices continue to apply.
- 5.10. Wiley may issue the relevant invoice through the US entity or any of its affiliates.
- 5.11. Consortium is responsible for the payments as set forth in the attached Appendices and invoices issued under this Agreement.
- 5.12. In addition to those Customers listed in Schedule 1 and Appendix A.1, Consortium may propose to Wiley new institutions for inclusion in the Agreement, for Wiley's consideration and approval. Subject to Wiley's written approval, such new institutions could join the Agreement for an additional access and publishing fee (among any other appropriate terms) and on execution of a Sign-Up Letter or Amendment.

6. MUTUAL OBLIGATIONS

- 6.1. In addition to the obligations set forth herein, Wiley will:
 - 6.1.a. Make reasonable efforts to ensure uninterrupted online access to and continuous availability of the Licensed Electronic Products to Authorized Users in accordance with this Agreement, and to restore access to such Licensed Electronic Products as promptly as possible in the event of an interruption or suspension of the Wiley Online Library service which is not attributable to any third-party service provider over which Wiley has no control (e.g., an Internet or telecommunications service provider).
 - 6.1.b. Provide aggregate usage statistics to the Customer which are compliant with COUNTER Codes of Practice or conform to the then-prevailing industry standard (except as otherwise specified in the attached Appendices) about the use of the Licensed Electronic Products by the Customer's Authorized Users, consistent with applicable privacy laws and confidentiality requirements.
 - 6.1.c. Wiley will provide a Customer Success Manager (CSM) who works alongside the Customer's account manager, to ensure Customer and their Authorized Users have the resources and support needed to gain the most value from the partnership with Wiley.
- 6.2. In addition to the obligations set forth herein, the Customer will:
 - 6.2.a. Take all reasonable measures to inform Authorized Users of the Terms and Conditions of Use stated in Section 4 above, and to emphasize to such Authorized Users the need to comply with whatever restrictions on access, use, reproduction and transmission are included therein;
 - 6.2.b. Make access available to Authorized Users only through the Customer's Secure Network and using the authentication method(s) and valid parameters set forth in Schedule 1 or other secure authentication methods as described in the appropriate Appendix; undertake reasonable measures within its control to prevent access to and improper use of Wiley Online Library, the Licensed Electronic Products, WOAA and Dashboard by unauthorized persons; and take responsibility for remediating all issues uncovered and for terminating any unauthorized access of which it has actual notice or knowledge;
 - 6.2.c. Provide Wiley with information in Schedule 1 about the Customer's specific authentication method and valid parameters which can be used by Wiley to authenticate Authorized Users. The Customer represents that all such authentication method and parameters will be limited to the Customer's Secure Network and will be listed in Schedule 1 as updated from time to time. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that all specific authentication methods and valid parameters as listed in Schedule 1 or otherwise provided to Wiley correspond with the Customer's valid parameters and are limited to the physical addresses specified in this Agreement. Without limiting the Customer's obligations hereunder or Wiley's rights and remedies in the event of breach, the Customer agrees to pay Wiley, if Wiley so elects, for any access to Wiley Online Library for any parameters that do not meet the preceding criteria.

- 6.2.d. Use all reasonable efforts to monitor compliance with the Terms and Conditions of Use and promptly notify Wiley of any infringement of its Intellectual Property Rights or unauthorized usage of the Electronic Products, which comes to the Customer's attention; and cooperate with Wiley in the investigation of such infringement or unauthorized use and in actions, which Wiley takes to enforce its Intellectual Property Rights, at Wiley's expense. Notwithstanding the above, the Customer will not be responsible for such unauthorized use which is without the express or implied consent of the Customer, provided that the Customer has taken reasonable steps to prevent such misuse and, upon learning of it, uses all reasonable efforts to ensure that such activity ceases, and notifies Wiley promptly of any such breach or infringement.
- 6.2.e. Except with respect to material published on an open access basis, neither the Customer nor any Authorized User has the right to incorporate any material from the Electronic Products into any institutional or other repository. Author agreements are separately negotiated with Wiley and include provisions about what authors may and may not do with respect to materials authored by them.

7. PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION POLICY

- 7.1. Wiley recognizes the importance of protecting the information it collects in the operation of Wiley Online Library and will act in compliance with the Privacy Policy posted at <https://www.wiley.com/en-us/privacy>.
- 7.2. To comply with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council ("GDPR") and other applicable laws, statutes, and regulations relating to data protection and privacy, Wiley and Customer agree to the terms set forth in the Data Processing Addendum set forth in Schedule 2.

8. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 8.1. The Term of this Agreement commences on January 1, 2025 and ends on December 31, 2027 (the "Term"). Each year within the Term is a "Contract Year" (unless the Parties agree to a shorter time period for any Contract Year as specified in Appendix A.1).
- 8.2. During the term of each applicable Product Appendix, the Customer may license additional Electronic Products under such Product Appendix and this Agreement. If the Term of the Agreement as set forth in Section 8.1. is extended, the term of the applicable Product Appendix will be automatically extended to run concurrently with the Term in order to allow the Customer to continue to license additional products under such Product Appendix in subsequent years, unless otherwise provided in the applicable Product Appendix. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Product Appendix term may never exceed the Term.
- 8.3. The performance of the Member Institutions of their obligations under the Agreement shall be subject to and contingent upon the availability of funds provided, allocated, or allotted in institutional budgets or otherwise lawfully expendable for the purpose of the Agreement for the current and future Agreement term. Any Member Institution shall provide notice to Wiley of the non-availability of such funds by November 1st and the intent to terminate the Agreement beginning on January 1st of the forthcoming year. If a Member Institution executes this option, no refund of payment already received by Wiley will be owed to the Member Institution. The determination of whether funds are available shall be made in the sole discretion of the applicable Member Institution. The termination of participation by one Member Institution will not constitute a default or a termination of participation of any other Member Institutions under the Agreement and shall not be grounds for any increase in fees payable by other Member Institutions.

- 8.4. Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party materially breaches its obligations under this Agreement and fails to cure such material breach, provided that:
- 8.4.a. the non-breaching party will give written notice of its intention to terminate and will allow the breaching party sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice to remedy the breach; and
 - 8.4.b. where Consortium seeks to terminate due to a material breach by Wiley that is not cured, Consortium may terminate only as to the Customer materially affected by the breach and the Agreement will remain in effect for the Consortium and all other Customers.
- 8.5. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, the parties agree to work together in good faith to negotiate a new agreement. With the exception of any perpetual access rights as set forth in each applicable Appendix,
- 8.5.a. the Access Rights herein will terminate on the earlier of the expiration or termination of this Agreement; and
 - 8.5.b. the Publishing Rights herein will terminate on the earlier of
 - 8.5.b.i. the expiration of the Publishing Right Period; or
 - 8.5.b.ii. expiration or termination of this Agreement. Wiley, in its sole discretion, may extend access to the Licensed Electronic Products for a limited period of time during the negotiation of a new agreement and subject to the Terms and Conditions of Use and the Customer obligations in Section 6.2.

9. WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMERS

- 9.1. Wiley represents and warrants that it has the right and authority to make the Licensed Electronic Products available to the Customer and its Authorized Users pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that, to the best of Wiley's knowledge, the Licensed Electronic Products do not infringe upon any copyright, patent, trade secret or other proprietary right of any third party.
- 9.2. Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, Author Services, WOAA, and Dashboard may provide Authorized Users with links to third-party websites. Where such links exist, Wiley disclaims all responsibility and liability for the content of such third-party websites. Authorized Users assume sole responsibility for accessing third-party websites and the use of any content on such websites.
- 9.3. Except for the warranties provided by Wiley in Section 9.1 above,
- 9.3.a. WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, AUTHOR SERVICES, WOAA, DASHBOARD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF TITLE, OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE;
 - 9.3.b. THE USE OF WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, AUTHOR SERVICES, WOAA, DASHBOARD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN IS AT THE AUTHORIZED USER'S OWN RISK;
 - 9.3.c. ACCESS TO WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, AUTHOR SERVICES, WOAA, DASHBOARD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS MAY BE INTERRUPTED AND MAY NOT BE ERROR FREE; AND

- 9.3.d. NEITHER WILEY NOR ANYONE ELSE INVOLVED IN CREATING, PRODUCING OR DELIVERING WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, AUTHOR SERVICES, WOOA, DASHBOARD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, OR THE MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN, WILL BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE AUTHORIZED USER'S USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, WOOA, DASHBOARD, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN.
- 9.4. Wiley will indemnify and hold Customer harmless from and against any damages, costs and fees (including reasonable attorney's fees) resulting from any judgment against Customer arising out of the claim of a third party that Wiley's license of the Licensed Electronic Products or Customer's use thereof as expressly permitted under this Agreement constitutes an infringement of any copyright, patent, or trade secret of any such third party. This indemnity will survive termination of the Agreement for two years. This indemnity will not apply if the claim involves content which has been modified or used in a manner not permitted under this Agreement or if Customer has failed to comply with other material terms of this Agreement.
- 9.5. Customer must give prompt notice of an infringement claim to Wiley, provide such cooperation and assistance to Wiley as is reasonably necessary to defend the claim, and allow Wiley to have the sole control of the defense, provided, however, that the Customer retains the right to participate in the defense at its own expense.
- 9.6. The Consortium represents that it has been granted the authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the Customers.
- 9.7. Subject to Clause 9.1 or liability for any intellectual property claims, each Party's liability for any claim whether in contract, tort (including for negligence or breach of statutory duty howsoever arising), restitution or otherwise, for any loss or damage, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to an amount equal to the total Annual Access & Journal Publishing Fee paid and payable under this Agreement during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date on which the claim arose in respect of any event or series of connected events provided always that no Party shall be liable for:
- 9.7.a. any special, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential damages;
 - 9.7.b. loss of direct or indirect profits, business, contracts, revenue or anticipated savings; or any increased costs or expenses

10. CONFIDENTIALITY PROVISIONS

- 10.1. While negotiating this Agreement and during the Term thereafter, Wiley may provide the Customer with certain information, which may be oral or written (including information in electronic format), which is deemed confidential. For the purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information is defined to include, but is not limited to, the terms and conditions of this Agreement that have been negotiated, such as financial terms, the substance of all negotiations relating thereto, all information pertaining to Wiley Online Library which is proprietary to Wiley, and any other material which has either been marked "confidential" by Wiley or which, by the nature of the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, would be understood to be confidential by a reasonable party.
- 10.2. The Customer may only use Confidential Information for the purposes of negotiating and implementing this Agreement. The Customer agrees to take reasonable care to protect the Confidential Information from disclosure to third parties and to limit disclosure of the Confidential Information to those employees or contractors of the Customer including affiliates of the Customer who have a need to know in connection with this Agreement, and who have been made aware of, and agree to abide by, these restrictions. When disclosure is legally mandated, the parties will use, whenever possible, a version of the Agreement without Confidential Information.

- 10.3. A redacted version of the Agreement may be made public 30 days after the last day on which it has been duly executed by Consortium and Wiley, and individual institution fees paid by the Consortium will be kept confidential and redacted from any public disclosure.

11. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 11.1. The Consortium and Wiley will work together on a joint communications plan for the announcement of the Agreement, agreeing to the content and timeline for messages to stakeholders (such as librarians, authors, university leaders), as well as public statements and press releases.
- 11.2. Wiley may assign this Agreement to its successors, subsidiaries or assigns. This Agreement may not be assigned by the Customer except with the prior written consent of Wiley.
- 11.3. This Agreement will be construed and interpreted pursuant to the laws of the State of New York, without regard to such State's conflict of law rules.
- 11.4. Any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof must be instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction in New York County in the State of New York and each party hereby consents and submits to the personal jurisdiction of such court, waives any objection to venue in such court and consents to the service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at the last known address of such party.
- 11.5. In the event of a material breach of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by either party, the non-breaching party will be entitled, in addition to any other remedies available pursuant to this Agreement or at law, to equitable, including injunctive, relief.
- 11.6. Notwithstanding any other term in this Agreement, neither party's delay or failure to perform any provision of this Agreement due to circumstances beyond its control (including, without limitation, war; civil disorder; strike; flood; fire; storm; accident; terrorism; governmental restriction; infectious disease; epidemic; pandemic; public health emergency; embargo; power, telecommunications or Internet failures; damage to or destruction of any network facilities; the enactment of any law, executive order, or judicial decree; or any other circumstance beyond a party's control whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing) ("Force Majeure") will be deemed to be, or to give rise to, a breach of this Agreement. The party claiming Force Majeure will provide written notice of the circumstances (where possible) and will be entitled to a reasonable extension of time for performing such obligations. Where Wiley is claiming Force Majeure, Wiley will be entitled to implement a reasonable alternative where practical under the circumstances and if its inability to perform continues for more than 30 days or it is inadvisable or commercially impractical to perform due to Force Majeure, the parties will renegotiate the terms set forth in this Agreement to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure and Wiley and the Consortium will conduct all such renegotiations in good faith.
- 11.7. Any notice, request, statement or other communication to be given hereunder to any party must be in writing addressed to Wiley at the address on page one, attention Executive Vice President, and with a copy to REDACTED and to the Customer's Agreement Administrator at the address on Schedule 1, or mailed or delivered to such other address as each party may designate by notice given in like manner, and any such notice, request, statement or other communication, will be deemed to have been given when received, except that if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by overnight courier service, it will be deemed to have been given when mailed as aforesaid or when delivered.
- 11.8. This Agreement with Wiley internal number 43576 constitutes the complete understanding of the parties and supersedes all prior understandings between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No modification, amendment, or waiver of any provisions will be valid unless in writing and executed by the parties. Any waiver in one or more instances by either of the parties of any breach by the other of any terms or provisions contained in this Agreement will not be considered a waiver of any succeeding or preceding breach. In the event that any section of this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement will survive.

- 11.9. Severability. The parties agree that if any provision of this Career Center Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect and the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision will be replaced with a provision that is legal and valid and most closely reflects the intent of the parties.
- 11.10. Waiver and Cumulative Remedies. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of that right. Other than as expressly stated herein, the remedies provided herein are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other remedies of a party at law or in equity.
- 11.11. The parties waive any rule of construction that requires that ambiguities in this Agreement be construed against the drafter.

SCHEDULE 2: DATA PROCESSING ADDENDUM

This Data Processing Addendum (“DPA”) dated January 1, 2025 (“Effective Date”) is between Maynooth University acting on its own behalf and as non-exclusive agent on behalf of the other Members of the Consortium (“Customer”) and, John Wiley & Sons, Inc., a New York corporation, 111 River Street, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030 acting on its own behalf and as agent for each Wiley Affiliate (collectively, “Wiley”) (together with Customer, the “Parties”).

In the course of providing Electronic Product and Services to Customer, Wiley may Process Customer Personal Data on behalf of Customer and the Parties agree to comply with the following provisions with respect to such Processing of Customer Personal Data. This Agreement does not apply to data subjects who register an account separately with Wiley to access Wiley Online Library or access other Wiley services not covered by the Master Agreement.

1. Definitions:

- 1.1. “Affiliate” means an entity that owns or controls, is owned or controlled by or is or under common control or ownership with the subject entity, where control is defined as the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of an entity, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.
- 1.2. “Customer Personal Data” means Personal Data Processed by Wiley or a Subprocessor on behalf of Customer in connection with the Electronic Product and Services.
- 1.3. “Data Protection Laws” means all laws, regulations, and other legal or self-regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction applicable to the Processing of Customer Personal Data in connection with the Electronic Product and Services, including without limitation, to the extent applicable, the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (“GDPR”) and the California Consumer Privacy Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.100 et seq. (“CCPA”), as may be amended, replaced or superseded from time to time.
- 1.4. “Personal Data” means information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (“Data Subject”) or that is otherwise defined as “personal information” or “personal data” by Data Protection Laws.
- 1.5. “Personal Data Breach” means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, Customer Personal Data.
- 1.6. “Electronic Products and Services” means the electronic (online) editions of Wiley journals and other publications and the content therein, which the Customer has licensed under Master Agreement and the electronic features and services in Wiley Online Library available to the Customer to be supplied or carried out by or on behalf of Wiley for Customer.
- 1.7. “Subprocessor” means any third party appointed by or on behalf of Wiley to Process Customer Personal Data.
- 1.8. The terms “Business”, “Controller”, “Processing”, “Processor”, “Service Provider” and “Supervisory Authority” shall have the same meaning as in the GDPR or the CCPA, as applicable, and their cognate terms shall be construed accordingly.

2. Processing of Customer Personal Data

- 2.1. Roles of the Parties. The Parties acknowledge and agree that with regard to the Processing of Customer Personal Data, Customer is the Controller or Business (as applicable), Wiley is the Processor or Service Provider (as applicable), and Wiley will engage Subprocessors for the provision of services specifically related to the Agreement pursuant to the requirements set forth in Section 5 (Subprocessors) below.
- 2.2. Customer’s Processing of Personal Data. Customer shall, in its use of the Electronic Product and Services, Process Personal Data in accordance with the requirements of Data Protection Laws, including any applicable requirement to provide notice to Data Subjects of the use of Wiley as Processor. Customer represents and warrants that it has provided notice and obtained all consents and rights to the extent required by Data Protection Laws for Wiley to Process Customer Personal Data and provide the Electronic Product and Services. Customer shall ensure that its instructions for the Processing of Customer Personal Data comply with, and will not cause Wiley to be in breach of, Data Protection Laws. As between the Parties, Customer is solely responsible for (i) the accuracy, quality, and legality of the Customer Personal Data provided to Wiley by or on behalf of Customer, (ii) the means by which Customer acquired Customer Personal Data, and (iii) the instructions it provides to Wiley. Customer specifically acknowledges that its use of the Electronic Product and Services will not violate the rights of any Data Subject that has opted out from sales or other disclosures of Personal Data, to the extent applicable.

2.3. Wiley's Processing of Personal Data. Wiley shall Process Customer Personal Data in compliance with Data Protection Laws and only for the following purposes: (i) Processing to provide the Electronic Product and Services; (ii) Processing initiated by Data Subjects in their use of the Electronic Product and Services; and (iii) Processing to comply with other documented reasonable instructions provided by Customer where such instructions are consistent with this DPA and Data Protection Laws. If Processing of Customer Personal Data is required by laws to which Wiley is subject, Wiley shall to the extent permitted by law inform Customer of the legal requirement before such Processing occurs.

2.4. Instructions for Processing. Customer instructs Wiley (and authorizes Wiley to instruct each Subprocessor) to (i) Process Customer Personal Data and (ii) transfer Customer Personal Data to any country or territory as reasonably necessary for the provision of the Electronic Product and Services and in accordance with Section 11 (Restricted Transfers) below. The subject matter of and duration of Processing of Customer Personal Data, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the types of Customer Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects Processed under this DPA are further specified in Schedule 2a attached hereto

3. Personnel

3.1. Wiley shall take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of its personnel who Process Customer Personal Data, ensuring that all such individuals are subject to confidentiality undertakings or professional or statutory obligations of confidentiality.

4. Data Security

4.1. Taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of Processing as well as the risk of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons, Wiley shall in relation to Customer Personal Data implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to that risk, including, as appropriate, the measures referred to in Article 32(1) of GDPR. In assessing the appropriate level of security, Wiley shall take into account the risks that are presented by Processing, in particular from a Personal Data Breach.

5. Subprocessors

5.1. Appointment of Subprocessors. Customer authorizes Wiley to appoint third-party Subprocessors in connection with the provision of the Electronic Product and Services. Wiley has entered or will enter into a written agreement with each Subprocessor containing data protection obligations not less protective than those in this DPA with respect to the protection of Customer Personal Data, to the extent applicable to the nature of the services provided by such Subprocessor. The list of Subprocessors engaged by Wiley for the provision of services specifically related to the Agreement as of the date of this DPA is set forth in Schedule 2a, attached hereto, and Customer hereby consents to such Subprocessors.

5.2. Notification of New Subprocessors and Customer's Right to Object. Wiley will give written notice to Customer of the appointment of any new Subprocessor for the provision of services specifically related to the Agreement that may process Customer Personal Data. If, within ten (10) business days of receipt of that notice, Customer (acting reasonably and in good faith) notifies Wiley in writing of any objection to the appointment, Wiley will use reasonable efforts to address Customer's objection or recommend a commercially reasonable change to Customer's use of the Electronic Product and Services to avoid Processing of Customer Personal Data by the objected-to new Subprocessor. After this process, if a resolution has not been agreed to within ten (10) business days, Wiley will proceed with engaging the Subprocessor.

5.3. Where a Subprocessor fails to fulfill its data protection obligations in connection with the Processing of Customer Personal Data under this DPA, Wiley will remain fully liable to Customer for the performance of that Subprocessor's obligations.

6. Personal Data Breach

6.1. Wiley shall notify Customer without undue delay and at least within 72 hours upon becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach. Wiley shall provide Customer with sufficient information to allow Customer to meet any obligations to report or inform Data Subjects of each such Personal Data Breach under Data Protection Laws. Wiley shall make reasonable efforts to cooperate with Customer and take reasonable commercial steps to assist in the investigation, mitigation and remediation of each such Personal Data Breach, to the extent such mitigation and remediation is within Wiley's reasonable control. Wiley shall have no liability for any costs arising from a Personal Data Breach except to the extent caused by Wiley's breach of this DPA.

7. Rights of Data Subjects

- 7.1. Taking into account the nature of the Processing, Wiley shall assist Customer by appropriate technical and organizational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfillment of Customer's obligation to respond to requests to exercise Data Subjects' rights under Data Protection Laws.
- 7.2. If Wiley receives a request from a Data Subject under any Data Protection Law in respect of Customer Personal Data, Wiley shall: (i) promptly notify Customer; and (ii) ensure that it does not respond to that request except on the documented instructions of Customer or as required by laws to which Wiley is subject, in which case Wiley shall to the extent permitted by law inform Customer of that legal requirement before responding to the request.

8. Data Protection Impact Assessment and Prior Consultation

- 8.1. Wiley shall provide reasonable assistance to Customer with any data protection impact assessments and prior consultations with Supervisory Authorities or other competent data privacy authorities, which Customer reasonably considers to be required by Data Protection Laws, in each case solely in relation to Processing of Customer Personal Data by, and taking into account the nature of the Processing and information available to, Wiley.

9. Deletion or Return of Customer Personal Data

- 9.1. Customer may in its absolute discretion by written notice to Wiley within fifteen (15) days of the date of cessation of any Electronic Product and Services involving the Processing of Customer Personal Data (the "Cessation Date"), require Wiley to return a complete copy of all Customer Personal Data to Customer and/or delete and procure the deletion of all other copies of Customer Personal Data. Wiley shall comply with any such written request within sixty (60) days of the Cessation Date. Upon Customer's request, Wiley shall provide written certification that it has fully complied with this Section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Wiley may retain Customer Personal Data to the extent required by applicable laws or regulatory requirements or otherwise pursuant to Wiley's internal data backup procedures, provided that such copies are kept confidential and secure in accordance with this DPA.

10. Audit Rights

- 10.1. Wiley shall make available to Customer, on reasonable request and at least forty-five (45) days' prior written notice, reports, documentation and other information reasonably necessary to demonstrate compliance with this DPA, and shall allow for and contribute to reasonable audits by or on behalf of Customer in relation to its Processing of Customer Personal Data as set forth in this Section. Customer agrees that, to the extent applicable, the reports, documentation and other information will satisfy any audit or inspection requests by or on behalf of Customer. Any such audit shall be subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations as determined in Wiley's discretion.
- 10.2. If Customer requests an on-premises audit, the following terms shall apply: (i) such audit shall be limited to facilities operated by Wiley; (ii) unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Parties, such audit shall not last more than two (2) business days; and (iii) before the commencement of any such on-premises audit, the Parties will mutually agree upon the scope, timing and duration of the audit. Wiley need not give access to its premises for the purposes of such an audit: (a) to any individual unless they produce reasonable evidence of identity, authority, and a duty to maintain confidentiality with respect to the Customer Personal Data and any Wiley information reasonably considered confidential; or (b) outside normal business hours at those premises, unless the audit by law needs to be conducted on an emergency basis and the Customer has given reasonable notice of such emergency to Wiley before any audit or inspection occurs.
- 10.3. Customer will not exercise such audit right more frequently than once in any calendar year and Customer will bear the full cost and expense of any such audit, unless such audit discloses a security incident which directly impacts Customer Personal Data and is caused by Wiley's breach of this DPA, in which case Wiley will bear the reasonable cost and expense of such audit.

11. Restricted Transfers

- 11.1. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Processing of Customer Personal Data may include transferring Customer Personal Data outside the Data Subject's country of residence. Customer shall obtain all necessary consents from Data Subjects for such transfers of Customer Personal Data. Where, under Data Protection Laws, there are (or there become) restrictions, approvals or conditions placed upon Customer or Wiley transferring Customer Personal Data outside the Data Subject's country of residence, the Parties shall comply with all such requirements.
- 11.2. To the extent that Wiley Processes any Customer Personal Data that originates from the United Kingdom in a country that has not been designated as providing an adequate level of protection for Personal Data, Wiley and Customer hereby agree to the clauses set out in the European Commission's Decision of 5 February 2010 on standard contractual clauses for the transfer of personal data from the European Union to processors established in third countries ("UK SCCs"). Where applicable, the UK SCCs are hereby incorporated by reference into and form an integral part of this DPA as if fully set forth herein, and the Parties' execution of this DPA shall be deemed as the Parties' execution of the UK SCCs. The information required by Appendix 1 and Appendix 2 to the UK SCCs is set forth in Schedule 2a, attached hereto. If the UK SCCs are amended, replaced, or superseded by a new set of clauses, Wiley and Customer hereby agree to such new clauses with an effective date of the latest date permitted by the relevant authority.
- 11.3. To the extent that Wiley Processes any Customer Personal Data that originates from the European Economic Area or Switzerland in a country that has not been designated by the European Commission or Swiss Federal Data Protection Authority (as applicable) as providing an adequate level of protection for Personal Data, Wiley and Customer hereby agree to the clauses set out in the European Commission's Decision of 4 June 2021 on standard contractual clauses for the transfer of personal data to third countries ("EU SCCs"). Where applicable, the EU SCCs are hereby incorporated by reference into and form an integral part of this DPA as if fully set forth herein, and the Parties' execution of this DPA shall be deemed as the Parties' execution of the EU SCCs. Module Two of the EU SCCs shall apply where Customer is the Controller and Wiley is a Processor, and Module Three of the EU SCCs shall apply where Customer is a Processor and Wiley is a Subprocessor. The information required by the Appendix to the EU SCCs is set forth in Schedule 2a, attached hereto. If the EU SCCs are amended, replaced, or superseded by a new set of clauses, Wiley and Vendor hereby agree to such new clauses with an effective date of the latest date permitted by the relevant authority.

12. General Terms

- 12.1. Changes in Data Protection Laws. Either Party may, by at least thirty (30) days' written notice to the other, propose any variations to this DPA which the Party reasonably considers to be necessary to address the requirements of any Data Protection Law. The Parties shall promptly discuss the proposed variations and negotiate in good faith with a view to agreeing and implementing variations designed to address the relevant requirements as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- 12.2. Severance. Should any provision of this DPA be invalid or unenforceable, then the remainder of this DPA shall remain valid and in force. The invalid or unenforceable provision shall be either (i) amended as necessary to ensure its validity and enforceability, while preserving the parties' intentions as closely as possible or, if this is not possible, (ii) construed in a manner as if the invalid or unenforceable provision had never been contained therein.
- 12.3. Survival. Sections 12 and 13 shall survive termination of this DPA.
- 12.4. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. The UK SCCs (if such clauses are applicable) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the Parties hereby consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. The EU SCCs (if such clauses are applicable) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ireland and the Parties hereby consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of Ireland.

SCHEDULE 2A: DETAILS OF PROCESSING OF CUSTOMER PERSONAL DATA

(vi) Processing of Customer Personal Data

Customer Personal Data is Processed for the following purposes: (i) Processing to provide the Services; (ii) Processing initiated by Data Subjects in their use of the Services; and (iii) Processing to comply with other documented reasonable instructions provided by Customer where such instructions are consistent with this DPA and Data Protection Laws. The subject matter and duration of the Processing of Customer Personal Data shall be as consistent with the Services and this DPA.

(vii) Description of the technical and organizational measures implemented by Wiley

Cybersecurity and Privacy Strategy

Wiley protects its infrastructure and the personal data within it according to the information security principles of confidentiality, integrity, and availability. Our security program is based on the NIST Cybersecurity Framework (CSF), including but not limited to our policies, standard operating procedures, and technical controls. Our privacy program is based on the NIST Privacy Framework to complement and expand our security controls while meeting contractual and legal privacy requirements. Wiley's approach to security and personal data protection incorporates both technical controls and organizational processes.

Confidentiality

A mandatory security education and awareness program is in place to educate internal users on the importance of their obligation to protect the confidentiality of personal data. Employee background checks are performed before granting personnel any data access, and employees are required to acknowledge the commitment to confidentiality of any data they may access in the performance of their duties. Single sign-on (SSO), multi-factor authentication (MFA), and complex password requirements are in place to enforce secure authentication. Wiley follows the principle of least privilege by restricting data access to only individuals with a valid job-based reason to access production information.

Vendor contractual obligations are required for third-party sub-processors prior to any personal data access or transfer to require that the same level of protection be maintained throughout the duration of any vendor engagements, with stipulations covering security and confidentiality of personal data.

Wiley's information security policy requires all sensitive data to be encrypted both in transit and at rest. Endpoint protection is implemented to prevent and detect malware and other security threats. Firewalls and network anomaly detection systems are continuously monitored by the Wiley Security Operations Center (SOC). The Wiley SOC monitors all system security alerts and investigates incidents which may impact the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of the environment or data within it.

Integrity

Wiley uses only hosted data center vendors with appropriate physical security and environmental controls which adhere to SOC 2 Type II as well as ISO 27001 certification standards. Production data is separated from development environments, and a formal change management process is in place to prevent unauthorized changes. To manage vulnerabilities, monthly scans are performed to confirm that the appropriate level of security patching and configuration is maintained. Secure audit logs are in place for nonrepudiation and traceability.

Availability and Resilience

Wiley uses industry-recognized hosted data center vendors with ISO 27001 and SOC 2 certifications to achieve high availability and resilience. Business continuity and disaster recovery plans are in place and tested periodically to confirm process effectiveness. Backups are taken and stored per data classification and retention requirements to enable restoration. Anti-DDoS protection is in place, and application security reviews are conducted on Wiley sites.

Risk Management

Wiley has implemented a data risk management strategy that considers the risks of accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to personal data transmitted, stored, or otherwise processed. Wiley considers the likelihood and severity of the risks to individuals whose personal data Wiley may process in the performance of service contracts. Data protection is considered throughout the lifecycle of products and services, and technical personnel are trained in privacy by design and default.

Incident Response and Breach Notification

Wiley maintains a 24x7x365 Security Operations Center (SOC) that responds to and investigates system or security alerts as well as reported incidents. Wiley has implemented an Incident Response Plan (IRP) which prioritizes regulator and/or client breach notification requirements when they are applicable to a security or privacy incident. Where Wiley is engaged as a sub-processor on behalf of a client, Wiley will not notify individual data subjects affected by a breach directly and will instead notify the client of a data breach no later than the timeline specified in the agreement.

(viii) List of Sub-processors Processing Customer Personal Data:

Amazon	Sendgrid
Google	Cloudflare
Synoptek	NetApp
Equinix

(ix) Description of transfer

Categories of data subjects whose personal data is transferred: As set forth in Section C of this Schedule 2a.

Categories of personal data transferred: As set forth in Section D of this Schedule 2a.

Sensitive data transferred (if applicable) and applied restrictions or safeguards that fully take into consideration the nature of the data and the risks involved, such as for instance strict purpose limitation, access restrictions (including access only for staff having followed specialised training), keeping a record of access to the data, restrictions for onward transfers or additional security measures: As set forth in Sections E and G of this Schedule 2a.

The frequency of the transfer (e.g. whether the data is transferred on a one-off or continuous basis): Data is transferred on a continuous basis.

Nature of the processing: As set forth in Section F of this Schedule 2a.

Purpose(s) of the data transfer and further processing: As set forth in Section F of this Schedule 2a.

The period for which the personal data will be retained, or, if that is not possible, the criteria used to determine that period: Personal data will be retained for as long as necessary to carry out the purposes set forth in this DPA, and for any additional period that may be required by law.

For transfers to (sub-) processors, also specify subject matter, nature and duration of the processing: As set forth in Section F of this Schedule 2a.

(x) Competent Supervisory Authority

Where the Customer executing this DPA is established in an EU Member State, the supervisory authority of such Member State shall act as competent supervisory authority.

Where the Customer executing this DPA is not established in an EU Member State, the supervisory authority of one of the Member States in which the data subjects whose personal data is transferred are located, as indicated in this Schedule 2a, shall act as competent supervisory authority

SCHEDULE 3: WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY TERMS OF USE

The following Terms of Use govern use by all Users of Wiley Online Library (or any successor thereto) and the electronic edition of the products subscribed to by an Authorized User or the Authorized User's institution (the "Customer") under an agreement with us (the "License"), and incorporate by reference Wiley's general Terms of Use, our Privacy Policy, and any guidelines, rules or disclaimers that may be posted and updated on specific web pages of Wiley Online Library or on notices that are sent to you. Please read the following carefully because by using Wiley Online Library you are agreeing to abide by these Terms of Use.

Definitions

1. Authorized Users – As defined in your applicable License.
2. Electronic Products - All products, services and content available in Wiley Online Library.
3. Intellectual Property Rights – These rights include, without limitation, patents, trademarks, trade names, design rights, copyright (including rights in computer software), database rights, rights in know-how and other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered, which may subsist anywhere in the world.
4. Licensed Electronic Products – The Electronic Products which the Customer has licensed.
5. Users – Users of Wiley Online Library regardless of whether they are unregistered users, Authorized Users, or Customer.
6. Wiley Online Library - The online service (or any successor thereto) available from Wiley or its affiliates including all products, services and features offered via the service. Certain products and services may be delivered from other platforms. The terms and conditions hereof are equally applicable to those products and services.

Copyright

The Electronic Products, Wiley Online Library and the Intellectual Property Rights contained therein are protected by law. As a User, you have certain rights specified below; all other rights are reserved.

Additional Product License Terms

In addition to these Terms of Use, if you or your institution entered into a license with Wiley (the "License"), the terms of the License also apply and will control in the event of any discrepancy or conflict between the License and these Terms of Use. Specifically:

- Instant Access Article / Pay Per View (PPV) License Terms:
 - If you purchase 'Instant Access' or 'Pay Per View'/PPV access to an article, or book chapter, the individual person purchasing will receive a non-exclusive, non-transferable, personal right to access and use the selected work in the format and for the time period selected. Unless the option 'PDF Full Text and Online Access' is selected, the Licensed Electronic Products will not be downloadable.
 - Full payment via credit card is required to complete an order. Purchases are non-refundable except in very limited circumstances where the download is faulty, damaged, wrongly described or otherwise refundable under certain consumer laws. We will only consider refunds up to 48 hours following purchase, unless a longer period applies under local law.
- Title by Title basis Journal Subscription License Terms
- Institutional License Terms: Your institution may have a license which permits you additional uses; contact your institution's librarian/administrator for more information.

E-Commerce Terms and Conditions

Our E-Commerce terms and billing policy applies to all transactions made on Wiley Online Library.

Rules of Use

A. To make Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Products useful, the following rules apply:

1. Users may browse all Tables of Content for all Electronic Products on Wiley Online Library, regardless of what Licensed Electronic Products the Customer subscribes to, and search the entire database of Tables of Content and abstracts. For most publications, Users may browse the abstracts as well.

2. Customers and their Authorized Users will have access to the full text of the Licensed Electronic Products covered by the applicable License. Customers and their Authorized Users may download, search, retrieve, display and view, copy and save to a secure network or other electronic storage media and store or print out single copies of individual articles or items for their own personal use, scholarly, educational or scientific research or internal business use. Customers and Authorized Users may also transmit such material to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically for personal use or scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for the following uses: re-sale, systematic distribution, e.g. posting on a listserv, network (including distribution through social networking websites and scholarly collaboration networks (SCNs), except it is permissible to post on an SCN that has signed up to the STM sharing principles and solely in accordance therewith (see <https://howcanishareit.com>) or automated delivery, or for any other use not listed here. In addition, Authorized Users have the right to use, with appropriate credit, figures, tables and brief excerpts from individual articles in the Licensed Electronic Product(s) in their own scientific, scholarly and educational works. Please note that these rights do not extend to the use of material, images or figures that are separately listed as the copyright of a thirdparty.
3. All Users have the option to create a My Profile Page which will allow them to create links to Electronic Product(s), articles of interest and search criteria which may be reused by them and manage their custom e-mail alerting services. In order to do so, Users must register. During the registration process, Users will select and register a user name and password which they must keep confidential and not disclose to or share with anyone else.

B. Except as expressly provided above or with respect to material published on an open access basis under a Creative Commons license for which the license terms apply (including the requirement for attribution), Users may not:

- copy, distribute, transmit or otherwise reproduce, sell or resell material from Electronic Product(s);
- store such material in any form or medium in a retrieval system;
- download and/or store an entire issue of an Electronic Product or its equivalent;
- or transmit such material, directly or indirectly, for use in any paid service such as document delivery or list serve, or for use by any information brokerage or for systematic distribution, whether or not for commercial or non-profit use or for a fee or free of charge.

C. Users agree not to remove, obscure or modify any copyright or proprietary notices, author attribution or any disclaimer as they appear on Wiley Online Library. Users may not integrate material from the Electronic Product(s) with other material or otherwise create derivative works (including resulting from the use of artificial intelligence technologies and tools) in any medium or override any security feature or exclusionary protocol. However, brief quotations for purposes of comment, criticism or similar scholarly purposes are not prohibited herein.

D. Users may not do anything to restrict or inhibit any other User's access to or use of Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Product(s).

E. If a User refuses or fails to abide by these Terms of Use or violates any other terms of this Agreement, Wiley reserves the right in its sole discretion to suspend or terminate their access to Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Products immediately without notice, in addition to any other available remedies.

F. Users shall not have the right to incorporate any material from the Electronic Products into any institutional or other repository under any circumstances without Wiley's prior written approval (including social networking websites and scholarly collaboration networks, except for those that have agreed to Wiley's Article Sharing Policy found here: <https://authorservices.wiley.com/author-resources/Journal-Authors/Promotion/article-sharing-policy.html> and in accordance therewith).

G. Users shall not:

- Use any scraper, crawler, spider, robot or other automated means of any kind to access or copy this site, Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, or any material included therein, deep-link to any feature or content on Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, or any material included therein, bypass our robot exclusion headers or other measures we may use to prevent or restrict access to Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, or any material included therein;
- Use or enable artificial intelligence technologies and tools to ingest, train, test, analyze, process, copy, distribute, make publicly accessible, and/or generate output (including resulting from the use of artificial intelligence technologies and tools) based on Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, or any material included therein, or upload, copy, or host the Wiley Online Library, the Electronic Products, or any material included therein to or for use in artificial intelligence technologies and tools directly or indirectly (e.g., through the use of third-party plugins, extensions or decentralized custom chatbots associated with those artificial intelligence technologies and tools).

H. If expressly permitted by Wiley under a relevant License or by statutory rights under applicable legislation, users who wish to engage in text and data mining of the Electronic Products for non-commercial, scholarly research purposes may do so only by using Wiley Online Library and consenting to and in accordance with Wiley's Text and Data Mining Agreement. Wiley reserves all rights to make reproductions and extractions for text and data mining. By agreeing to these Terms of Use, you acknowledge and agree to Wiley's reservation of text and data mining rights. Subject to the foregoing reservation, Wiley does not restrict any statutory text and data mining rights held by User under applicable legislation.

Additional Terms

Wiley is not responsible for any charges associated with accessing Wiley Online Library and the Electronic Products, including, but not limited to, any computer equipment, telephone or internet connections and access software.

Upon payment of an invoice, the products in the invoice are covered by the Customer's License on the terms and conditions therein.

Wiley may modify any of these terms and conditions at any time by providing notice on Wiley Online Library. A User's continued use of Wiley Online Library shall be conclusively deemed acceptance of such modification.

Wiley Online Library may provide links to third-party websites. Where such links exist, Wiley disclaims all responsibility and liability for the content of such third-party websites. Users assume the sole responsibility for the accessing of third-party websites and the use of any content appearing on such websites.

Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Wiley recognizes the importance of protecting the information it collects in the operation of Wiley Online Library and will act in compliance with the Privacy Policy posted at <http://www.wiley.com/privacy>.

Warranty Limitations

WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY AND THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF TITLE, OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE; THE USE OF THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS, WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY AND ALL MATERIALS IS AT THE USER'S OWN RISK; ACCESS TO WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY AND THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS MAY BE INTERRUPTED AND MAY NOT BE ERROR FREE; AND NEITHER WILEY NOR ANYONE ELSE INVOLVED IN CREATING, PRODUCING OR DELIVERING THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS OR THE MATERIALS CONTAINED IN WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USER'S USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE WILEY ONLINE LIBRARY, THE ELECTRONIC PRODUCTS AND ALL MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN.

Lecture	Y	Transcript or summary of a speech given at a conference, symposium, workshop or similar, usually an invited speech, given by a recognised expert, an award winner, or elected society officer.
Media Review	N	Short review on the usefulness/quality of one or more books or other media, to aid readers in decision-making.
Meeting Report	N	Summary of developments presented at a meeting, relying largely on the works presented at the meeting, rather than being fully referenced accounts of a field.
Method and Protocol	Y	Procedural method in the design and implementation of an experiment or study.
News	N	External factual information to keep readers up to date with events.
Obituary	N	Celebration of the life of a deceased researcher of significance, by giving an account of the work and influence of that individual.
Off-Line Licenses	N	Only for Hybrid journals, these articles have separate licensing requirements that are contractually handled off-line and not through Wiley systems and processes. Copyright lines will be different from the journal default.
Opinion	N	An opinionated, subjective piece by one or more experts, (who may agree or disagree) on a topic or publication.
Perspective	Y	Personal opinion on a topic, often with a novel/imaginative approach to a provocative question, with an engaging though rigorous investigation that enhances the understanding of the subject, including new developments, and moderate referencing.
Practice and Policy	Y	Public statement of what a representative group of experts agree to be evidence-based and state-of-the-art knowledge on an aspect of practice/policy.

Profile	N	Life story of a person significant to the field.
Rapid Publication	Y	Report of a key new research finding that needs/merits fast dissemination, and so is expedited.
Research Article	Y	Reports of original research, with methods, findings and conclusions.
Retraction	N	Warning to alert readers that an article been confirmed as unreliable, either due to its content or a compromised publication process. The article's content remains available for transparency.
Review Article	Y	Overview of developments in fields or the current lines of thought. Synthesizes multiple sources of information and has long list of references. Emphasis is more factual and less on opinion.
Short Communication	Y	Brief observations and research reports in a concise format.
Technical Note	Y	Extensions or updates to previously published research, reporting additional controls; projects that did not yield publishable results but represent valuable information regarding protocol and data collection; additions to established tools, experimental or computational methods; description of a database; null results and orphan data; data management plans; description of a specific development, technique or procedure, or a modification of an existing technique, procedure or device; new algorithm or computational method, new experimental method, improved version of an experimental protocol or computational approach, new implementation of an existing algorithm.
Translated Article	N	Translated from other articles by a translator, who could be an original author, and held under separate copyright. (For translations arranged by a journal contract with right to publish in all languages, please use Translation under Custom Content.)
Withdrawal	N	Warning to alert readers that an article has been confirmed as unreliable, harmful, or legally problematic and that the article's content has been removed.

APPENDIX B: JOURNALS – THE DATABASE

Customer: Irish Research Electronic Libraries (host organisation of the Irish Research Electronic Library)

The Database will comprise all subscription-based journal titles published on Wiley Online Library including titles previously excluded from collections, transfer titles and newly launched journals.

1. Title List: The complete list of titles included in the Database is available at https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/pb-assets/PriceLists/Database_Model_Journal_List.pdf.
2. Access: The subscription will entitle the Customer to online access to the electronic files of all content published in the journals that comprise the Database during the term of the subscription and retrospective content, generally back to 1997, depending on the start date of online publishing by Wiley. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include any material included in Backfiles for the same journals.
3. Perpetual Access: Upon termination of this Agreement, Wiley will provide the Customer with Perpetual Access to the electronic files of all content published in the journals that comprise the Database during the term of the subscription, where Wiley has the rights to deliver this. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer will retain Perpetual Access rights to current electronic files and retrospective content, generally back to 1997, for any journals in which the Customer already had such rights from Wiley independent of this Agreement. No Perpetual Access rights are provided under this Appendix B for any material included in Backfiles for the same journals.
4. Journal Database Fees: The Database Fee is included in the Annual Access & Hybrid Publishing Fee per Contract Year as listed in Section 5.1. of the Agreement and Appendix A.1.
 - 4.1. The Annual Access & Publishing Fee in a subsequent Contract Year may change if there is a material change to the number and value of the journal titles included in the Database.
 - 4.2. Wiley will submit to the Customer by September 1 of Contract Years 1 and 2 a list of the online editions of all journals in the Database that will be made available on Wiley Online Library in the following Contract Year including all confirmed new and transfer journal titles. For journal titles that are transferred out of the Database, Wiley will use all reasonable efforts to comply with the Transfer Code of Practice or to the then-prevailing industry standard.
 - 4.3. In the event of a material change as described above, the parties shall negotiate in good faith an appropriate amount as a fair compensation for such material change.
5. Print Subscription Pricing: The Customer can purchase print subscriptions to journals in the Database to which the Customer subscribes at a deeply discounted rate at the prevailing rate. This does not apply to:
 - 5.1. Titles published in e-only format by Wiley.
 - 5.2. Titles for which print subscriptions are only available through a Print-on-Demand option. Print on Demand subscriptions are not eligible for any discount.
 - 5.3. Print subscriptions should be ordered directly via the Wiley Customer Services department, or through an agent.

APPENDIX O: PUBLICATION REPORTING METADATA.

Article coverage requirement	2023 Wiley compliance	IREL questions and requests	Will this criterion be met in annual reports during the term? (YES / NO)	Wiley responses and notes

(yes/no or N/A for ineligible articles)	This field was not filled out correctly in the 2023 report. In many cases, this said "Yes" where there this could not have been the case (e.g. if the funding request was rejected by our OA approvers, then the author could not also have opted out of funding). Please ensure that this refers to opting out of IReL-funding and NOT whether the author opted out of OA in general.	TBC	We currently derived 'opt outs' as articles that were shown an eligibility message for IREL, and separately opted out of the OA question "Do you want to publish Open Access?", and published subscription.
