APPENDIX A

MASTER PUBLISHING TERMS OF SERVICE

This Master Publishing Terms of Service governs PLOS' services to institutions and consortia ("Customer") to enable authors to publish with PLOS on an unlimited basis each year in exchange for one annual payment to PLOS. The types of services offered by PLOS and the journals to which they apply ("Participating Journals") are set forth in the PLOS Publishing Service Order Form between the parties ("PLOS Order Form"). The applicable terms are set forth below and are made part of the PLOS Order Form.

1. ANNUAL FLAT FEE TERMS

- 1.1 Customer agrees to pay PLOS an upfront annual fee each year for PLOS' review and publication of research articles by corresponding authors employed by or affiliated with Customer ("Authors") on articles accepted for publication within the Agreement Term in Participating Journals selected in the PLOS Order Form, regardless of the number of articles from corresponding authors accepted by PLOS during the Term. The annual fee to be paid by Customer is set forth in the PLOS Order Form.
- 1.2 Customer will pay PLOS the annual fee for year 1 within ten (10) days of the Effective Date. Thereafter, Customer will pay the annual fee in full in the manner identified on PLOS' invoice within thirty (30) days of the invoice date.
- 1.3 Customer will not be entitled to a prorated refund of the annual fee in the event of early termination of this agreement.
- 1.4 Within sixty (60) days prior to the termination date, the parties will discuss a renewal and whether the annual fee should change for the renewal term based on historical acceptance rates of Author manuscripts. If the parties agree that the amount should change, the parties will enter into an amendment to this agreement to reflect the new agreed-upon renewal term and fee.

2. GENERAL TERMS - APPLICABLE TO ALL SERVICES

- 2.1 Reports. PLOS will provide Customer access to monthly accepted publications reports and, upon request, COUNTER data from Participating Journals. The monthly publications reports will show the name of the Author, the manuscript submission date, the journal title, the article title, and journal ISSN. Customer will notify PLOS in writing within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the report of any incorrect information or discrepancy in the report, and absent such notification will be deemed to have accepted the monthly report as correct.
- 2.2 Acceptance Date is the date on which an article receives formal acceptance and all final checks are completed in accordance with PLOS' editorial policies.
- 2.3 Effective Date. This effective date of this agreement shall be the date indicated in the PLOS Order Form ("Effective Date"). The terms of this agreement will apply to manuscripts accepted by PLOS during the Term, beginning on the Effective Date.
- 2.4 Term. The term of this agreement shall be the term indicated in the PLOS Order Form ("Term").
- 2.5 Termination. Either party may terminate this agreement: (1) for cause due to the other party's material breach if such breach remains uncured thirty (30) days after written notice of the breach is given by the party claiming the breach. A termination for cause shall be effective three (3) days after written notice of such termination is given; or (2) with immediate effect from the date of written notice if the other party (a) files for bankruptcy protection or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, (b) is the subject of an order made for the winding up of its operations, (c) becomes subject to an administration order or a receiver or trustee, (d) becomes insolvent, or (e) ceases to do business or threatens to cease to do business. Except as expressly provided for herein, the parties' respective rights and obligations under this agreement end immediately upon termination.

2.6 Currency. All amounts reflected in a PLOS Order Form and attachments are in United States dollars.

2.7 Severability. If any part of this agreement is found to be unreasonable, invalid or unlawful under any enactment or rule of law, the court shall have the power to strike out or override that part whether it be an entire clause or clauses or some part or parts thereof and enforce this agreement as if the offending part or parts had not been included.

2.8 Amendments; Waivers. No amendment or alteration of this agreement shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of both parties. The waiver by either party of its rights regarding any breach of any provision(s) of this agreement shall not be taken or held to be a waiver of such rights with respect to any other or subsequent breach thereof.

2.9 Entire Agreement. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Other than as expressly stated otherwise in this agreement neither party shall be under any liability for any representations made prior to or during the operation of this agreement.

2.10 Governing Law; Venue. This agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, and any legal action between the parties relating to this agreement must be brought and filed in San Francisco, California.

2.11 Assignment. Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this agreement to another person or entity without the written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. No consent shall be necessary in the event of an acquisition of substantially all of the assets of a party. Subject to the foregoing, this agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties, their respective successors, and permitted assigns.

2.12 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other for performance rendered impossible due to circumstances beyond the control of the party, such as acts of God, war, government regulations, disaster, strikes (except those involving the employees or agents of the party seeking the protection of this clause), or civil disorder. The ability to terminate this agreement without liability pursuant to this paragraph is conditioned upon delivery of written notice to the other party setting forth the basis for such termination as soon as reasonably practical - but in no event longer than ten (10) days - after learning of such basis.

2.13 Authority to Sign. Each person signing the PLOS Order Form represents and warrants that they have complete authority to legally bind the party on whose behalf he/she is signing to the terms of this agreement. A signed copy of this Agreement by facsimile, email or other means of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original executed copy of this Agreement for all purposes.

2.14 Website Accessibility. PLOS acknowledges the importance of website accessibility and will engage in conversations on this topic with Customer throughout the Term. PLOS shall use reasonable efforts to conform to the accessibility requirements of Web Accessibility Initiative, Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 at level AA. PLOS and the Customer have the right to access or post the content on other websites or platforms in order to comply with applicable law.

2.15 Antidiscrimination in the Workplace. The parties represent that they comply with any applicable laws prohibiting workplace discrimination.

3 Additional Terms.

3.1 For clarity, when Customers receive monthly publication reports (as per 2.1), the Customer may notify PLOS within fourteen days of any articles where they do not deem the corresponding author to be employed by or affiliated with the Customer. In such cases, the article will be excluded from the Annual Flat Fee Terms (as per 1.1).

3.2 The following sections are omitted:

2.15 Antidiscrimination in the Workplace.
