

ORI Monthly Bulletin

Welcome to the second monthly bullet from Open Repositories Ireland, which aims to keep you up-to-date with recent activity in the community! As the year draws to a close, we would like to wish you the warmest Seasons Greetings and thank you for your commitment to improving Ireland's Open Repository network throughout the year.

COMMUNITY LISTSERV ACTIVITY

As always the Community ListServ has been busy in recent months. OpenAIRE compliance and the removal of OpenAIRE from the Alma/Primo's Central Discovery Index continue to be topics which have got people talking and sharing advice.

STRENGTHENING OPEN REPOSITORY COLLABORATION IN IRELAND:

Open Repositories Ireland \(ORI\) has recently strengthened their collaboration with IReL, forming a key alliance with the National Open Access Monitor. This partnership was formalised in September when Aaron Binchy, IReL's Open Access Monitor Officer, assumed coordination duties for ORI. Both initiatives, rooted in NORF recommendations, aim to unify Ireland's open research infrastructure and advance Open Research across the national ecosystem.

UPCOMING EVENTS

As we look forward to an exciting start to 2026, we have many ORI activities planned, which will include meetings and training events. More details on these will be provided soon. Enjoy the Christmas break and we look forward to working with you in the New Year!

Further information on these and other topics can be found on the ORI website: <https://www.universityofgalway.ie/openrepositories/ori/>
